

Great Careers Begin Here!

Workforce Ready

Industry Standard Training

Student-Centered, Transformative Education

Version 1.2 6.17

For more information contact:

Amy O'Dell, MID LEED-GA
Program Chair, Interiors
Division Chair, Business, Public Safety & Professional Services

Lanier Technical College
Forsyth Campus
3410 Ronald Reagan Boulevard
Cumming, Georgia 30041

678.341.6630
aodell@laniertech.edu

A Unit of the Technical College System of Georgia
www.tcsg.edu

Interiors

Associate of Applied Science
Diploma
Window Treatment TCC
Interior Design Assistant TCC
Interior Design Sales TCC

LANIER Technical
College

www.laniertech.edu

EOI

Great careers begin here!

Learn Interior Design!

	Interior Design Fundamentals Emphasizes the fundamentals of design. Topics include: The Design Process, Interior Space Planning Concepts, the Principles and Elements of Design, Furniture Arrangements and Traffic Patterns, Special Needs, Introduction to Green Design and Career Exploration.
	Technical Drawing Emphasizes familiarization and skills in reading, production methods and interpreting construction drawings and graphic standards and introduces the application of drawing techniques used in interior design.
	Materials and Resources Emphasizes the background knowledge necessary for selection of interior finishes for walls, floors, ceilings and other non-textile components needed in interior environments.
	Building Codes and Systems Emphasizes familiarization with interior construction and service systems for interiors, including interior and exterior construction systems, construction documents, codes, sustainable building techniques and coordination with generalists and installers.
	Computer Aided Drafting Introduces basic computer language and application of computers to the field of interior design. Topics include: introduction to CAD commands and applications, techniques of setting up a drawing, use of layering, execution of commands.
	History of Interiors & Architecture I & II Emphasis is on historical foundations of furniture and architecture. Topics include: historical architectural and furniture concepts, furniture and architectural terminology, furniture and architectural construction and materials and historic design development.
	Textiles Emphasizes the background knowledge necessary for the selection of natural and man-made textile finishes and materials needed in interior environments.
	Interiors Seminar Emphasizes professional development through career resources and artistic exploration. Topics include: Informational Interviewing, networking, cultural development, and artistic exploration.
	Lighting Technologies Provides basic knowledge of vision as affected by light, color, texture, and form. Introduces the basic principles of lighting design including criteria, calculations, planning, and layout.
	Studios I, II, & III Provide students with long and short term projects which address real-life design situations and begin to develop competence in solving residential and commercial design problems.
	Internship Provides students with in-depth application and reinforcement of interiors and employability principles in an actual job setting.
	Business Principles Capstone class utilizing all skills, knowledge, and techniques required for successful business practices in the design industry.

Lanier Technical College Interiors Program

Follow us!

laniertechinteriors.carbonmade.com/

WE'RE ON Pinterest

www.laniertech.edu

LANIER Technical
College

770.533.7000

678.341.6630