Course Offerings

[Currently, all classes are available without an audition. Contact Mr. Walden or your counselor for more information.]

MUSICAL THEATRE

Taught by: Mr. Walden & Mr. Speakman

Skills will range for beginners to advance. Students who are interested in pursuing performance get to act, sing, dance and much more! Those who want to pursue tech will have opportunities to do a variety of jobs backstage! This class will produce and perform a children's musical.

ACTING

Taught by: Mr. Walden

Students who are interested in pursuing performance without the musical aspect will explore acting through pantomime, improv, and advanced scene work.

ADVANCED DRAMA

Taught by: Mr. Walden

This class takes skills learned in Acting a step further deepening scene work and digging into aspects of play production. Are you interested in directing? Do you like reading plays? Or maybe you even want to write your own show one day? This class is great for you.

TECHNICAL THEATRE

Taught by: Mr. Walden

Interested in what is available off stage? Explore all the aspects of what goes on behind the scenes of a play - lighting, sets, props, costumes, makeup, hair, sound, stage managing, and the list goes on. This class gives you real life, hands on experience. Come find your fit!

Out of Class Opportunities

[All students are invited to audition for these productions or to complete a tech application.]

ONE ACT PLAY

Performed in October. Auditions are held near the beginning of the school year. This a region GHSA competition.

SPRING MUSICAL

Performed in April. Auditions will be held after Dember 14th.

INTERNATIONAL THESPIAN SOCIETY

ITS is an Honors Society that recognizes achievement in theatre. Students who participate in Theatre functions and performances will be invited to become a Thespian. Members earn points for their involvement. Graduation regalia is awarded based on points.

THESPIAN CONFERENCE

Being a Thespian also means you can attend Georgia Thespian Conference. It is a weekend long event at Columbus State University. Students have the opportunity to attend workshops, audition for scholarships and compete in Thespy and Tech Challenge.

TRIPS

Join us for a fun get away! Trips will be offered yearly and locations will vary. In order to be eligible, students must participate in at least 1 Theatre or Choir activity and be willing to participate in functions of the trip. See Mr. Walden or Mr. Speakman for more information.
